CHINESE HERBS

ANOTHER GREAT AND GOOD MAN CALLED TO ASSIST D. R. FONG.

The Great Chinese Herbalist, D. R. Fong, has been called to assist D. R. Fong in the grand and noble work of dispensing Chinese medicine to the people. Dr. Fong has found the Salt Lake people so appreciative of his wonderful medicine that he has decided to assist him in his consultations and dispensary.

THE QUESTION "WHY"

Should this Chinese Herbalist be so successful? The answer is less difficult than one would think. In the first place, twenty-four years of constant study, without one single week's vacation, is long time to put in on one study. Again, the Chinese Herbalists must know the uses of every herb, root, bark, or flower they use, and to what species it belong, by the taste and smell. During the three years of regular practice in the hospitals, they have an opportunity to use every remedy and observe its effect.
It is necessary to remember that the Chinese Herbalists are not only doctors, but also and primarily, they are phar-macologists. They know the uses of every herb, root, bark, or flower they use, and to what species it belongs, by the taste and smell. During the three years of regular practice in the hospitals, they have an opportunity to use every remedy and observe its effect. It is necessary to remember that the Chinese Herbalists are not only doctors, but also and primarily, they are pharmacologists. They
